

Catena Malbec: #1 Imported Red Wine Over $15 in the US Since 2017 (Source: Circana)

Catena is the undisputed leader and pioneer in the category:

- High Mountain Vines is the dominant category leader with 50% share of the Argentine category ($15 – 20) in (Source: Circana).
- In Spring 2024, Catena’s launched a new national advertising campaign celebrating “120 Years in Love with Malbec” totaling over 24 million impressions in the first 6 months.
- Catena has achieved a 40% reduction in overall glass weight from 2008 to 2023, decreasing carbon emissions by up to 21%.
- 2022 vintage scored 92 points from James Suckling & Vinous.

The Catena family has been making wine in the acclaimed Mendoza region since 1902 and is credited with discovering the benefits of high-altitude terroir. The family’s Certified Sustainable vineyards produce wines of unparalleled quality and elegance, as affirmed again and again by wine critics around the world.

BEST VINEYARD
IN THE WORLD
WORLD'S BEST
VINEYARDS
2023

NICOLÁS CATENA
LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT
WINE ENTHUSIAST
WINE STAR
AWARDS
2021

EXTRAORDINARY
WINERY AWARD
Suckling
WINE SPECTATOR
2017

NICOLÁS CATENA
DISTINGUISHED SERVICE
Wine Spectator
2012

NICOLÁS CATENA
MAN OF THE YEAR
Decanter
2009

16 x TOP 100
WINERY
Wine & Spirits

